

To Kill a Mockingbird

Pathfinder

T. Manning-Media Specialist
EPHS

Book Information:

Online Study Guide for To Kill a Mockingbird:
<http://www.homework-online.com/tkamb/index.asp>

Author Information:

This site compares real life events and the book:
<http://library.advanced.org/12111/SG/SG5.html#author>

History:

Jim Crow Laws:
http://www.nps.gov/malu/documents/jim_crow_laws.htm

Archives for the Scottsboro trial and other primary documents:
<http://library.advanced.org/12111/mbirdha.htm>

Civil Rights Timeline:
<http://library.advanced.org/12111/mbirdha.htm>

Growing up White in the South (1930's):
<http://library.thinkquest.org/12111/girl.html?tqskip1=1>

Growing up Black in the South (1930's):
<http://library.thinkquest.org/12111/mculley.html>

Monroeville, Alabama: the inspiration for Maycomb
<http://mockingbird.chebucto.org/monroe.html>

Great Depression:

The New Deal Network:
<http://newdeal.feri.org/>

Eyewitness to History: American in the 1930's:

<http://www.eyewitnesstohistory.com/snprelief.htm>

Then and Now: Compare Prices from the Great Depression and today:

http://www.michigan.gov/hal/0,1607,7-160-15481_19268_20778-52530--,00.html

The Great Depression and New Deal: A Photographic Tour:

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/wpaintro/intro01.html>

Databases:

Use for all topics listed above:

Databases:

- Click on World Book picture above.
- Search the great depression for your topic or event.
- Examine your article and follow the links to more articles about your topic.

- Click on Student Resource Center picture above.
- Use password: elmw89890
- Search the great depression.

- Click on Literature Resource Center picture above.
- Use password: elmw89890
- Search for information and literary criticisms of Harper Lee.